

TA-21 pre-demolition equipment removal

A worker removes old lighting fixtures from the basement of building 209.

Workers remove cables from electrical boxes retrieved from building 209. The metal will be recycled.

A crane removes a large hydrogen tank from the roof of the Tritium Systems Test Assembly facility prior to demolition.

A diesel generator removed from the Tritium Systems Test Assembly facility in November 2009 was the first large salvage item removed during pre-demolition activity.